Contents

Acknowledgements 1

Abbreviations 2

Introduction 3

CHAPTER 1 – METAPHYSICS IN DISCUSSION:
THE MEDIEVAL CONTEXT 13

1.1 Metaphysics in the Medieval Context 13
1.2 The Debate on the 'Subject' of Metaphysics. 17
1.3 The Scientific Profile of Metaphysics 21
1.4 An Alternative Position: Siger of Brabant 27
1.5 A Contemporary Approach: John Haldane's
Version of a Thomistic Metaphysics 32
1.6 De ente et essentia: a Treatise of Metaphysics? 38

CHAPTER 2 – THE DEGREES OF ABSTRACTION
AND THE METAPHYSICAL SEPARATIO. 47

2.1 Introduction: The Commentary on
Boethius's De trinitate 47
2.2 The Division of the Sciences According to their Object 52
2.3 The Doctrine of the Degrees of Abstraction 54
2.4 The Metaphysical Abstraction: Separatio 60
2.5 The Act of Separation as a Negative Judgement 64
2.6 Is Prior Knowledge of an Immaterial Being Required by the Separatio? 67
2.7 The Transition from Physics to Metaphysics:
the Proof of the First Mover. 71

CHAPTER 3 – FROM PHYSICS TO METAPHYSICS:
THE WAY OF RESOLUTIO 75

3.1 The Via Resolutionis 75
3.2 From Physics to Metaphysics (Ratio and Intellectus) 76
3.3 Metaphysics and the Way Towards the Consideration of Being as Being 90
3.4 The Circularity in our Knowledge of God and World 98
3.5 By Way of Conclusion: From Physics to Metaphysics 103

CHAPTER 4 – THE TRANSCENDENTAL
FOCUS OF METAPHYSICS. 107

4.1 Introduction: On Categories and Transcendentals 107
4.2 The Division of Being into Categories. 109
4.3 The Explication of Being According to De veritate 1,1. 113
4.4 Transcendentals and the Platonic Hypostasizing of Forms. 126
4.5 The Difference Between 'Being' and 'Doing' (First Act and Second Act). 133
4.6 Conclusion: Metaphysics as Transcendental Science? 135

CHAPTER 5 – THE PLACE OF ANALOGY
IN METAPHYSICS 141

5.1 Introduction: The Double Movement of Analogy. 141
5.2 The Analogous Likeness between Creatures and God 144
5.3 The Doctrine of the Analogia entis as a Worldview. 148
5.4 'Being is Said Analogously' 151
5.5 Analogy as Applied to the Divine Names 157
5.6 Conclusion: Analogy and the 'Threefold Way'. 163

CHAPTER 6 – FROM EXPERIENCE TO TRANSCENDENCE 169

6.1 Introduction: The Mediatory Role of Metaphysics 169
6.2 To the Limits of Experience and Beyond 172
6.3 The Human Intellect as a 'Night owl' 178
6.4 The Thesis of the Intelligibility of Being..... 181
6.5 The Idea of the Concrete Whole of Being 194

CHAPTER 7 – THE DOUBLE CHALLENGE TO METAPHYSICS IN THE PRESENT-DAY WORLD 197

7.1 The Expression 'Being as Being' 197
7.2 Metaphysics as Critique of Naturalism 199
7.3 The Onto-theological Structure of Metaphysics (Heidegger) 205
7.4 A Tentative Evaluation of Aquinas's Approach to (the Notion of) Being 209
7.5 A short Digression on the 'Concept of Being' According to Suárez 213
7.6 A Theology without Being? 216
7.7 Conclusion: Metaphysics as the Science of Presuppositions..... 226

Bibliography 229

Index 243